REPORT

Kamkus College of Law under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized one day National seminar entitled 'Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23: Significance and Challenges for Effective Justice' on 30th March, 2024 at its campus.

The seminar specifically explored the significance of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, and the challenges it presents in ensuring effective justice. This included issues related to enforcement, procedural bottlenecks, and areas where the law may not adequately address contemporary socio-legal concerns.

The seminar was graced by several esteemed guest speakers who shared their insights and experiences. Their speeches were thought-provoking and provided a fresh perspective on the challenges and opportunities presented by the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23. The Seminar was held under the leadership of Mr. Karunakar Sukul, Director, KCL and Prof. (Dr) Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi, Principal, KCL and all the faculty members of KCL.

The event started at around 11:00 am with the lighting lamp and Saraswati Vandana. The Dignitaries on the dais were Prof. (Dr) Vageshwari Deswal, Faculty of Law, Delhi University, Mr. Dharam Chand Jain, Special Director, CBI, and Professor Surendra Pathak, Emirates Professor, Department of Philosophy and Theology, Lok Jagriti University, Ahmedabad.

The inauguration Session was initiated with the welcome address of Prof. (Dr) Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi Principal, KCL. He expressed heartfelt gratitude towards all the attendees and emphasized the importance of such seminars in fostering dialogue and understanding in the field of law. His address set the tone for the day, highlighting the significance of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, and the need for discussions around its effective implementation.

The next keynote speaker of the session was Prof. (Dr) Vageshwari Deswal, Faculty of Law, Delhi University. She emphasized the importance of this new legal framework in the context of India's evolving socio-legal landscape. The speaker pointed out that the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, represents a significant step forward in the field of criminal law. It is designed to address contemporary challenges and ensure effective justice. The speaker highlighted that the law brings about much-needed reforms in enforcement mechanisms, procedural aspects, and in addressing socio-legal concerns. The speaker further stressed that the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, is not just a law, but a commitment to uphold justice, protect the rights of individuals, and maintain social order. It is a testament to the country's efforts to evolve its legal framework in line with the changing times.

Another eminent speaker was Professor Surendra Pathak, Emirates Professor, Department of Philosophy and Theology, Lok Jagriti University, Ahmedabad. The speaker delved into the philosophical underpinnings of justice and its practical implications in the context of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23. He emphasized that justice is not merely a legal construct but a fundamental human value that underlies the social fabric. He further elaborated on the dynamic nature of justice, highlighting that our understanding and interpretation of justice must evolve with changing societal norms and values. They stressed the need for the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, to reflect this dynamism, ensuring that it remains relevant and effective in delivering justice.

Another eminent personality of the event was Mr. Dharam Chand Jain, Special Director, CBI. The guest speaker provided an insightful comparative study of the old and new Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) as well as the Bhartiya Naagrik Suraksha Adhiniyam. He then moved on to discuss the changes introduced in the new BNS, emphasizing how these reforms aim to address the shortcomings of the old law and better align with contemporary socio-legal realities.

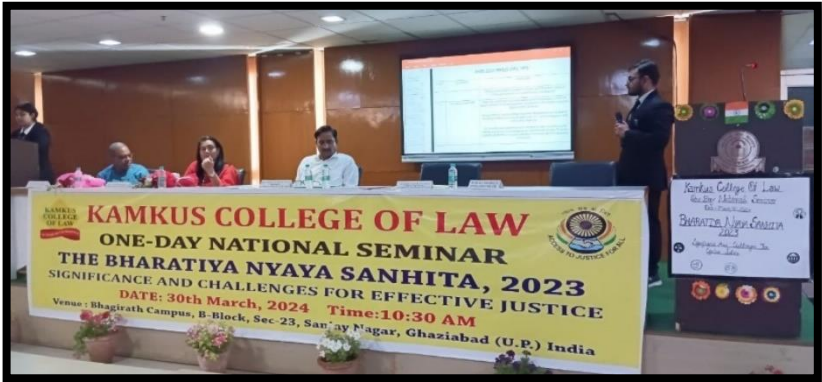

Vote of thanks was given by Prof. (Dr) Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi.

In addition to the guest speakers, students from the College also actively participated in the seminar. They presented their speeches on related topics, showcasing their understanding and perspectives on the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, and the Bhartiya Naagrik Suraksha Adhiniyam.

Learning Outcomes:

The seminar deepened the understanding of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, its significance, and the challenges it presents in ensuring effective justice. The discussions shed light on the issues related to enforcement and procedural bottlenecks in the implementation of the law. It highlighted areas where the law may not adequately address contemporary socio-legal concerns, fostering a broader awareness of these issues. The speeches by guest speakers and the participation of students from the College provided valuable insights and fresh perspectives on the subject matter.

For the students the seminar served as an inspiration and a practical learning experience, encouraging them to contribute to the discourse on justice and legal reform in the future.

Overall, the seminar was a significant learning experience that contributed to a deeper understanding of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 23, and the challenges and opportunities it presents in the pursuit of effective justice. It underscored the importance of collective effort and collaboration in bringing about meaningful reform in the field of criminal law. The insights and recommendations from the seminar will undoubtedly contribute to shaping the future direction of criminal law reform in the country.
